

CHIANG MAI PREMIUM TOUR PROGRAM TOUR ITINERARY (PROGRAM 009: 4 Days 3 Nights Weekend)

Explore – Experience – Authentic

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience Chiang Mai culture and lifestyle with Eco-Friendly
- Visit iconic and natural attractions
- Private transportation with professional driver
- Carefully selected attractions suitable and eco-friendly for premium guests
- Customized program as per client selected with many options of attractions
- optional for additional program

Remark:

- Program is subject to change depending on flight schedule, weather conditions, and local circumstances.

Included:

- All land services
- Private transportation with professional driver
- Professional Local guide
- All entrance tickets & activity fees
- Accommodation (4 Star International Brand Hotel: Novotel Chiang Mai Nimman Journeyhub or Travelodge Nimman Chiang Mai or Cross Vibe Chiang Mai Decem Hotel – Guest Stay Double/Twin 2 persons/room)
- Including Breakfast, Lunch and dinner
- Accident insurance
- The package can be adjusted based on guest preferences.
- Pricing will vary according to activities and services requested.

Excluded:

- International and domestic flight tickets
- Personal Expenses

Contact:

Chiang Mai Sunday Trip Travel

DMC & Travel Agency Chiang Mai - Chiang Rai, Thailand

123/12 M.5 T.Hangdong A.Hangdong, Chiang Mai , Thailand 50230

cmsundaytriptravel@gmail.com

(+66)84-1761777 (WhatsApp)

Quotation Available Upon Request

This sample program is prepared for travel partners and private clients as a flexible itinerary concept. Final quotation will be prepared based on travel dates, group size, hotel category, meal plan, guide language, transportation requirements and selected optional activities.

Program can be customized based on client requirements, travel style, budget and preferred pace.

- Private tour and DMC ground handling
- FIT, groups, incentive and educational tours
- English speaking team based in Chiang Mai
- TAT License No. 24/01283

DAY 1: Chiang Mai – Temple on the Hill – Local Test Dinner Recommend Morning:

Arrival at Chiang Mai Airport. Immigration clearance and transfer to City

Lunch:

Chom Cafe and Restaurant (Thai Select 2-Star Restaurant Award)

a renowned "fairytale" destination famous for its lush, mist-covered Tropical Thai Moss Garden, waterfalls, and koi ponds. The garden uses artificial mist to create a "forest fantasy" atmosphere. Visit just before sunset for the best lighting and consider wearing white or light-colored clothing to stand out against the greenery. The restaurant serves a mix of authentic Thai cuisine, fusion dishes, and Western options.

Afternoon:

Temple on the hill – Wat Phra That Doi Suthep, iconic temple in Chiang Mai, perched on the mountain that shares its name. Known for its shimmering golden pagoda and panoramic views of the city, it is a "must-visit" for any traveler in the region.

Wat Pha Lat, often called the "hidden temple" or the "temple at the sloping rock," is a serene Buddhist monastery tucked into the lush jungle on the slopes of Doi Suthep. Founded in the 14th century

Traveling to Hotel: Hotel Check-in

Evening

Dinner: Galae Restaurant: legendary dining destination in Chiang Mai, famous for its stunning floral gardens and its location by the Ang Kaew (CMU) Agricultural Reservoir. It is a popular spot for visitors looking for a romantic atmosphere or a scenic family meal. Known as a "garden restaurant," the area is filled with vibrant seasonal flowers. It offers open-air, lakeside seating with views of the surrounding mountains and Chiang Mai city below

Traveling back To Hotel

DAY 2: Local Craft Weekend Market – Hidden Tranquil Lanna Style Buddhist Temple - Cooking Class

Morning:

Depart from Hotel

Jing Jai Weekend Market: a vibrant market open Saturdays and Sundays (approx. 7 AM - 2 PM) offering local crafts, art, design, and fantastic food, with daily permanent shops like Tops Green and Good Goods also open during the week. Go early for the best selection of fresh produce and to avoid crowds, bring cash for most vendors, and enjoy the creative atmosphere with live music, eco-friendly practices, and unique Thai goods.

Lunch: Restaurant: Kang Jingjai Restaurant (Michelin Guide 2026)

highlights of Indonesian, Malaysian and Thai cuisine with friends. We suggest opting for their signature Nasi Lemak, or one of the bold, aromatic curries. All dishes are made to order, so diners may need to have a little patience while waiting for their delicious meals

Afternoon:

Wat Sri Don Moon Temple: is a tranquil Lanna-style Buddhist temple located in the Saraphi District, approximately 20 km southeast of Chiang Mai's Old City. It is primarily known for its association with the revered monk Kruba Noi Techapanyo, its striking white and gold architecture, and its peaceful atmosphere away from major tourist crowds

Evening Thai Culinary Cooking Class

Enjoy cooking 4 dishes. At highly-rated Thai culinary school located in the Saraphi District near Chiang Mai Town. Founded to preserve traditional family recipes, it offers a “farm-to-table” experience where students harvest fresh ingredients directly from an on-site organic farm.

Dinner: at Cooking School

Traveling back To Hotel

DAY 3: – Organic Farm Life Experience Activity – Heart of Chiang Mai – Michelin Guide Dinning-Walking Street

Morning:

Morning:

Depart from Hotel

GINGER ORGANIC FARM Life Experience: experience life on a Thai organic farm workshops right from rice planting to harvesting. Teaching plant and harvest rice and Learn about Rice Cultivation collect eggs from chicken, Watch Buffaloes prepare the rice field, enjoy muddy slide

Lunch:

Restaurant: Ginger Farm (Michelin Bib Gourmand 2020-2024)

scenic views of rice fields and mountains. It offers authentic home-cooked Thai cuisine alongside some Western dishes, using fresh organic ingredients sourced directly from the owner's garden.

Afternoon:

Wat Phra Singh Temple: is one of the most historically significant and visually stunning Buddhist temples in Northern Thailand. Located in the heart of Chiang Mai's Old City, it is a prime example of classic Lanna architecture and remains an active spiritual center where over 700 monks and novices live.

Wat Chedi Luang Temple: known as the "Temple of the Great Stupa," is one of the most important and visually striking Buddhist temples in the heart of Chiang Mai's Old City. Built in the 14th century, it was once the tallest structure in the Lanna Kingdom, reaching heights of around 80 meters before a massive earthquake in 1545 destroyed its upper portion. Today, the partially ruined but still massive brick chedi remains a powerful symbol of the city's rich history and architectural heritage.

Evening

Dinner Restaurant: BAAN Landai Fine Thai Cuisine (Michelin Guide 2020-2026)

Discover the flavors that define our culinary soul—refined Thai heritage inspired by our Northern roots, artisan presentation, and the traditional craftsmanship

Sunday Night Market largest and most famous market, it spans the heart of the Old City and offers a festival-like atmosphere with a vast array of goods and performances.

Traveling Back To Hotel

DAY 4: Morning Market – Golden Mountain Temple – Local Cuisine

Morning: Check-out from Hotel

Mae Hia Fresh Market: bustling local market in Chiang Mai known for its authentic Northern Thai food, fresh produce, and a wide array of local snacks and souvenirs. It provides an immersive experience into the local culture and cuisine.

Lunch:

Huen Phen Restaurant: A legendary Northern Thai restaurant in Chiang Mai. frequently highlight these signature northern flavors: Khao Soi: The iconic Northern Thai curry noodle soup, often cited as a must-try. Sai Oua: A spicy, herb-filled Northern Thai grilled sausage. Nam Prik Noom : A roasted green chili dip served with fresh vegetables and pork cracklings. Gaeng Hang Lay: A rich, slow-cooked pork belly curry with ginger and peanuts

Afternoon:

Wat Phra That Doi Kham, or the "Temple of the Golden Mountain," : is a historic and deeply revered Buddhist temple perched on a hill southwest of Chiang Mai. With a history stretching back over 1,300 years to the 7th century, it is one of the city's oldest spiritual sites. While often overshadowed by the more famous Wat Phra That Doi Suthep, this temple offers a more local and serene atmosphere, famous for its massive 17-metre-tall seated Buddha and panoramic views of the Chiang Mai valley

Traveling to Chiang Mai International Airport

Tip: The above pictures and itinerary are for reference only. The actual itinerary, optional activities, hotel arrangements, and meals may vary depending on season, weather conditions, traffic, or other unforeseen factors. The final details will be confirmed based on the itinerary provided at the time of booking.